P R E F A C E.

THE Eighth Volume of the "RECORDS OF THE PAST" has been continued on the same principle as its predecessors. A prominence has naturally been given to historical texts, as they are the most important which have been handed down by ancient Egypt. No branch, however, of Egyptian researches has been more minutely explored, and the great historical texts are almost exhausted. In the present volume will be found, a translation of the Sallier Papyrus relating to the Hykshos, the end of the Papyrus comprising the political condition of Egypt in the reign of Rameses III.; the Case of Conspiracy against the life of the same monarch; the texts relating to the Gold Mines in the reigns of Seti I. and Rameses II.; and the decree of Canopus, of the reign of Ptolemy Euergetes II., an inscription throwing great light upon the condition of the Egyptian priesthood under the rule of the Greeks in Egypt.

The subject of mythology is, however, by no means exhausted, and the important texts relating to it are not only beginning to attract attention, but are felt to be necessary for the due comprehension of the religious ideas of the Egyptians. A diversity of opinion, it must be stated, exists amongst scholars as to the value of later inscriptions of the Ptolemaic and Roman period. Some consider these texts to hand down the esoterical notions of ancient Egypt, which, except in the so-called Ritual or Book of the Dead, scarcely appear in the official monuments, although partly illustrated by the hymns to the gods found at the time of the XIXth. and subsequent Dynasties. The present volume contains one of these earlier litanies, that of Ra; and there are others still untranslated capable of throwing, incidentally, considerable light on the cosmic and demiurgic characteristics of the leading deities of the Pantheon. A hymn to the god Ammon of the Oasis, inscribed on the walls of El-Khargeh and of a nature remarkably Pantheistic, is also included in this collection, it probably is the composition of an eclectic denomination which, at a much earlier age, had attempted to reconcile the polytheism with the monotheistic tendencies of a party once dominant, although ultimately unable to effect a religious reformation.

Of literature, as distinct from mythology or history, there are few remains even amongst the numerous papyri which have been found or explored. A rare example, the Praise of Learning and Literature, a poem exalting the occupation of the scribe above all others, will be found at the end of the volume. The difficulties of translation increase greatly when the subject belongs neither to the domain of mythology nor history, and the language becomes more metaphorical or colloquial. Literary compositions are, however, not the least interesting portion of the subject, as they exhibit a vivid picture of national manners and innate thought.

RELATING TO THE HYKSOS PERIOD.

TRANSLATED BY
E. L. LUSHINGTON, D.C.L.

THIS very defective fragment, which consisted when complete of two pages and three lines, refers to that obscure period when foreign invaders, commonly called Hyksos, or shepherds, held dominion in Egypt, entrusting the government of the Southern region to a subordinate native viceroy. Apapi, the Hyksos king here mentioned, Apophis in the Greek form, is apparently the last of his dynasty. The struggle of which this fragment indicates the commencement, resulted eventually in the re-establishment of Egyptian independence and supremacy. The native prince, Sekenen-Ra, or Tiaaken, was the predecessor of Ahmes (Amosis), who is generally reckoned the 1st king of the XVIIIth dynasty.

The interest of the subject has attracted the attention of several eminent scholars to this relic of early history. It was first recognised by De Rougé, translated in part by Brugsch, Z. S. f. d. D. Morg. Ges., 9,200, in 1855, and again later in his Histoire de l'Égypte, 1859, p. 78; more fully by Mr. Goodwin, Cam. Ess. 1858, p. 243. More recently it has been treated by Dr. Birch, in Bunsen's Egypt, Vol. V., p. 730, 1867; Chabas, Les Pasteurs en Égypte, 1868, p. 16; and Ebers, Ägypten u. d. Bücher Moses, 1868, p. 204.

The style of the fragment is in general simple and easy; the difficulties that remain even after the labours of these admirable pioneers in vanquishing obstructions are mainly due to its dilapidated condition. At the end of line 3, p. 3, it breaks off in the middle of a sentence, and line 4 commences with a different subject. The present translation appeared in the Transactions of the Society of Biblical Archæology, Vol. IV., p. 263.

- 2 and all the natives of the land of Tameri,¹ listen to what I tell you of my meritorious works which I performed as King of mortals. The land of Kami²
- 3 had fallen into confusion every one was doing what he wished, they had no superior for many years who had priority over the others. The land of Egypt was
- 4 under Chiefs of nomes, each person killing the other for ambition and jealousy. Other events coming after it distressing years, A-AR-SU a Kharu³
- 5 amongst them as Chief. He placed the whole country in subjection before him, one assembled his companions. Then were abused the things done to the gods as for
- 6 men, no offerings were made in the interior of temples, the gods were overthrown and laid upon the ground, he did according to his wish and plan.
- 7 They⁴ set up their son who emanates from their limbs to be the living Ruler of every land in their place the great RA-USER-SHAU, the Approved of the Sun, the Living, Son of the Sun, RA, SETNEKHT⁵ the Dearly beloved of AMMON, the Living.
- 8 He was as KHEPRA,⁶ SET,⁷ when he is indignant, he adjusted the whole land which was in insurrection, he slaughtered the abominable who were in the land of Tameri,¹ was purified
- 9 the great throne of Kami.² He was living Ruler of both countries. He took trouble to set up what was perverted. Each one recognised his brother who were separated as by a wall.
- 10 He set up temples with divine supplies for offerings to the company of the gods according to the regulations. He

2 He descended to his abode of eternity in the Western Uas.³ Was father AMEN, the Lord of the gods, RA, TUM, PTAH the handsome face, crowning me as Lord of the two countries, in place of my progenitor. I received the title of my father

4 in the Atf crown having the uræus, I put on the sacred crown of two plumes, like TATANEN,⁴ thou art seated on the throne of HORUS, Lord of the two horizons,⁵ thou art adorned with ornaments like TUM.

ABSTRACT OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS IN A CASE OF CONSPIRACY
 IN THE TIME OF RAMESES III.

TRANSLATED BY
 P. LE P. RENOUF.

THE following is the translation of a hieratic text contained in a papyrus belonging to the Royal Museum at Turin, and known to scholars under the title of Le Papyrus Judicaire de Turin, given to it by M. Devéria, who first published it in the Journal Asiatique of 1865, with a translation and dissertation extending over several numbers of the journal. The whole has also appeared as a separate publication. The document is unfortunately imperfect; the first page, which certainly set forth the nature of the case, being almost entirely destroyed. This defect is the more to be lamented because the pages which have been preserved throw but little light upon the nature of the crimes of the accused persons. There was undoubtedly a conspiracy against the person of the sovereign, but we are left in the dark as to the kind of mischief intended by the conspirators. The text abounds in other difficulties which our present imperfect acquaintance with Egyptian archæology does not enable us to overcome. One of the criminals, for instance, is "Fan-bearer of the Auit." I confess that I do not yet know of any satisfactory translation of the word Auit, which represents a corporation of some kind. M. Devéria connected the word with the notion of slaughter, but M. Chabas has shown how utterly erroneous is this supposition. Nor am I able to explain the exact nature of the Pa-chent, which was apparently a part of the royal palace or court. It is certainly a gross error to translate the word by "harem," as M. Devéria has done. "Women of the Pa-chent" no more imply an Egyptian harem than "Ladies of the Bedchamber" imply an English institution of the same nature. We must be content for the present with leaving certain Egyptian words untranslated, till we are sure that the right English equivalent has been discovered.

The most faulty portion of M. Devéria's translation is the royal declaration at the commencement.

According to it Rameses handed the accused over to a tribunal, not for trial but for execution, as if the judges were but the instruments of the despot's arbitrary will. M. Chabas has, in a most valuable dissertation on the subject (Mélanges Egyptologiques, 3ème série, 1ère livraison), shown that such a translation is in direct opposition to the original text, according to which the Egyptian monarch, far from asserting the criminality of the accused, declares that "as to the talk which men hold he knows it not," that the judges are to find out the truth, to punish the guilty, but to beware of inflicting chastisement upon those who do not deserve it.

The name of one of the criminals, the major-domo, Paibakakamen, occurs on a contemporary document of which three fragments remain.¹ This latter text, which was also an abstract of criminal proceedings, dealt with a case of sorcery. A book of magic receipts, wax figures and love charms are mentioned, and a hand is said to have been paralyzed. Paibakakamen is named as having received the wax figures and prescriptions for paralyzing human limbs.

It will be remarked that no less than three of the persons named in the earlier part of the following document as members of the judicial commission (Paibasat, the scribe Mai, and the fan-bearer Hora) appear later on in the position of accomplices in the conspiracy, and are condemned to death.

The expression au-f mut-nef t'esef, which I have translated "he suffered death," is a very remarkable one. The pronoun t'esef has a reflexive force, and very emphatically marks the agent of the deed or the efficient cause of the state expressed by the verb. As xeper t'esef signifies αὐτογενής, "self-existent," so mut t'esef has the sense of αὐτόθνατος, "dying by one's own hand."

The grammatical reasons are sufficient to convince me that all the criminals here condemned to death suffered by their own hand. There ought, surely, to be nothing startling in this if we remember that in the most civilized state of Greece (and indeed of all antiquity) persons condemned to death were ordinarily obliged to be their own executioners.

INSCRIPTIONS OF THE GOLD MINES

AT RHEDESIEH AND KUBAN.

TRANSLATED BY
S. BIRCH, LL.D.

THE inscriptions relative to the gold mines at Rhedesieh consist of those inscribed on the walls of the temple at that site which is at present called Wady-Abbas. They have been published by Lepsius, Denkmaeler aus Aegypten und Aethiopen, Abth. III., Bl. 139-141, partly translated by M. Chabas, Les Inscriptions des Mines d'or, 4to., Paris, 1862, and are of the age of Seti I. of the XIXth Dynasty, and dated in his ninth year. The other inscription is on a tablet found at Kuban on the Eastern bank of the Nile, opposite Dekkeh the ancient Pselcis, Kuban being the old Contra Pselcis, a fortified post commenced by Amenemha III. and continued till the reign of Rameses XIII. It was published by M. Prisse d'Avesnnes, Monuments Egyptiens, Pl. xxi.

and is at Uriage in France, the chateau of Cte. St. Ferriol. Translations of this tablet have been published by Birch, Archæologia, xxxiv. p. 357, M. Chabas, Une Inscription Historique de Seti I., 4to., Chalons-sur-Saône, 1856, and in the Inscriptions des Mines d'or already cited. The inscription is thirty-eight lines, and the tablet of sandstone is about five feet high. The tablet is vaulted, and has two scenes above, representing Rameses II. offering to Horus, lord of the town of Bak or Aboccis, and to Khem, resident in the hill or mountain, the district being called "the countries towards the mountains." The text possesses great interest on account of its throwing considerable light upon the relations of Egypt on its Southern frontiers, and the precautions taken to secure access to the gold mines, the same as to the supposed emerald mines of Zabarah, to which a series of stations conducted from Redesieh to the East, the site and plan on the papyrus closely resembling the locality as figured by Cailliaud, Voyage à l'Oasis de Thebes, fo., Paris, 1821, Pl. i. 1.

DECREE OF CANOPUS.

TRANSLATED BY
S. BIRCH, LL.D.

THIS inscription was found by Professor Lepsius at San, the ancient Tanis, in 1866, and an account of it given to the Zeitschrift für ägyptische Sprache, 1866, p. 49. It was written on a tablet of calcareous stone with a rounded top, having above the winged disk with pendent uræi, wearing the upper and lower part of the crown pschent and holding feather flabella. The tablet was about seven feet high, had on its face 37 lines of hieroglyphs, 76 lines of Greek, and 74 lines of demotic or enchorial at the right edge. It was completely without injury, and was subsequently removed to the Museum of Boulaq, where it now is preserved. It is dated on the 17th the month Tybi, of the 9th year of Ptolemy III., or Ptolemy Euergetes I., B.C. 238, and is nearly a century older than the Rosetta Stone. Invaluable for the demonstration of the truth of the mode of interpreting the hieroglyphs the greater part of the words had their meaning already discovered. It has been published by Professor Lepsius, Das bilingue Dekret von Kanopus, 4to., Berlin, 1866; by Professors Reinisch and Rössler, Die zweisprachige Inschrift von San, 8vo., Wien, 1866; and Mr. S. Sharpe, The Decree of Canopus, 8vo., London, 1870. The present inscription is taken from the hieroglyphic text, but as the original language in which the decree was drawn up was in the Greek language, of which the hieroglyphic and demotic versions were paraphrastic translations, it may be necessary hereafter to give a translation of the Greek text. As a Greek inscription alone it is one of the longest and most important hitherto discovered, and its contents are new and important for the history, calendar, internal condition of the priesthood of Egypt upon which the text throws great light. Amongst other new historical information it gives that of the association of the Princess Berenike into the government by her parents, and her death on the 20th February, B.C. 239-8.

DECREE OF CANOPUS.

1 In year IX 7 the month Apellaios¹ the 17 Tybi according to the Egyptians under the King of Upper and Lower Egypt PTOLEMAIOS, the Everliving, Beloved of PTAH, son of PTOLEMAIOS and ARSINOË, the Brother-gods, when the Priest of King ALEXANDER the justified, of the Brother-Gods and of the Benevolent² Gods was APOLLONI-

2 DES, the son of MOSCHION, and MENEKRATEIA, the daughter of PHILAMMON, was Basket-bearer³ before Queen ARSINOË, the Brother-loving. On this day followed the Decree.

The Temple-wardens, the Prophets, the Hierodoules Priests, all who enter

3 in the sanctuary of the gods to clothe them, the Sacred Scribes, knowing things, the Divine Fathers, and the (other) Priests in their rank assembled from Upper and Lower Egypt on 5 of the month Dios,⁴ when was celebrated the birthday fete of His Majesty, and to the 25 day of that month, when His Majesty assumed

4 the dignity from his father : they assembled in the temple of the Benevolent Gods, which is in Petkutha⁵ and declared. Since King PTOLEMAIOS, the Everliving, the Beloved of PTAH, son of PTOLEMAIOS and ARSINOË, the Sister-gods, and the Ruler BERENIKE his sister and wife, the Benevolent Gods, have made benefits

5 many and great to the temples of Egypt for all time : since they have ordered very greatly to the gods : since they have taken perpetual care of the things of the glorious

APIS, MNEVIS, and all animals of the temple which are protected in Egypt, for whom they assigned great things supplying numerous things.

6 They took care of the statues of the gods, which had been robbed by the barbarians of the land Persia¹ from temples of Egypt, since His Majesty had won them back in his campaign against the two lands of Asia,² he brought them to Egypt, and placed them on their places in the temples, where they had previously stood. He has kept up peace in Egypt advantageously

7 by warring for its weal in vallies and plain foreign parts, and marched against many peoples and their Chiefs who commanded them, they were rendering fortunate those who live as his subjects, not only inhabitants of Egypt, but also of all lands subject to their Majesties. When moreover there happened a year of a deficient water of Nile during

8 their reign, and all the inhabitants of Egypt became faint-hearted at this event, for fear, memory made them think of the dearth which once did occur in the time of the former Kings, in consequence of the deficiency of the Nile to the inhabitants of Egypt in their time. His Majesty and his sister

9 and wife had cared in their hearts, which glowed for the inhabitants of the temples and the natives of Egypt in its entire extent, who were very much distressed and bent down. They remitted considerable taxes, in order to save men's lives, and took care for importations of corn into Egypt from the Eastern Rutennu³ from the land Kafatha,⁴ from the island Nabinaitt,⁵ which lies in the midst of the Great Sea,⁶

It came in the heart of the Priests of Egypt, they increased the numerous things of the King PTOLEMAIOS, the Everliving, the Beloved of PTAH, and the Ruler BERENIKE, the Benevolent Gods in the temples, and what (things) were for the parents, the Sister-Gods, their progenitors, and what was for

- 13 caste of the existing Priests, who are in all the temples and besides the four castes which exist to this day; and it shall be called the fifth caste of the Benevolent Gods. Inasmuch as it occurred fortunately with weal and blessing that King PTOLEMAIOS, the Everliving, Beloved of PTAH, son of the Sister-Gods was born on the 5th of the month Dios,² so from this day, as it was

15 they were before, as also to their children from this day for ever, are to be inserted in the registers in the castes of their fathers. And instead of the twenty Priest Counsellors, who are yearly elected for one year from the four castes being five men from each caste, there shall be nominated twenty-five Priests

16 for Counsellors, as five men are to be added out of the fifth caste of the Benevolent Gods, is to be given a proportion to the number of the fifth caste of the Benevolent Gods of all dues that arise from the offerings in the temples and of all things under their charge in the temples, and their President shall be of the caste a Chief Prophet, as is now the case with the four other castes. Inasmuch as was celebrated the festival

17 of the Benevolent Gods in all temples in each month on the 5, 9, and 25th days in consequence of a decree established before, and similarly as is celebrated a panegyry of the Great Gods, and a general feast in Egypt is celebrated yearly in its time so shall similarly be prepared a great festival in its time to King PTOLEMAIOS the everliving, the beloved of PTAH,

18 and to Queen BERENIKE, the Benevolent Gods, in the Upper and Lower country and throughout Egypt in its entire extent, on the day of the rising of the Divine Sothis² which is called the New Year in his name in the writings of house of life. At present it occurs in this 9th year on 1st day of Payni, in which month is celebrated the festival of

New Year, of the goddess BAST¹ and the great festival of the goddess BAST in this month, and also it is the time for the 19 collection of all fruits and rise of the Nile. But as the case will occur, that the rise of Sothis advances to another day in every 4 years, the day of the celebration of this feast, shall not pass along but it shall be celebrated on first day of Payni and the feast shall be celebrated as in the ninth year.

20 This festival is to be celebrated for 5 days: placing wreaths of flowers on their head, and placing things on the altar, and executing the sacrifices and all ceremonies ordered to be done. But that these feast days shall be celebrated in definite seasons for them to keep for ever, and after the plan of the heaven established on this day

21 and that the case shall not occur, that all the Egyptian festivals, now celebrated in winter, shall not be celebrated some time or other in summer, on account of the procession of the rising of the Divine Sothis² by one day in the course of 4 years, and other festivals celebrated in the summer, in this country, shall not be celebrated in winter, as has occasionally occurred

22 in past times, therefore it shall be, that the year of 360 days and the 5 days added to their end, so one day as feast of Benevolent Gods be from this day after every 4 years added to the 5 epagomenæ³ before the new year, whereby all men shall learn, that what was a little defective in the order as regards the sea-

- 25 to place this goddess with the god OSIRIS in the temple of Phaqotha¹ which is a sanctuary amongst the temples of the first rank, inasmuch as it is the most important and is equally honoured by King and inhabitants of Egypt in its full extent. 29 of the Benevolent Gods, in the temples of both lands in their extent on month Tybi, from the 17th day, when happened the procession for her, and purification on account of her mourning for four days.¹ There shall also be erected a statue of the goddess in gold, studded with all precious stones in the temples of the first rank and sanctuaries of the second rank throughout and the 30 site thereof shall be the sanctuary of the temple. A Prophet or one of the Priests is selected to perform the great lustrations, and the Priests who enter the sanctuary of the gods to clothe them, may carry it in (his) hands on the day of the crowning and feasts of the gods throughout, so that all men adoring it prostrate on the earth may see it prostrate in its honour, and it shall be called the statue of BERENIKE

31 the Queen of Virgins. And the crown to be placed on the head of this statue is not to be like the crown of the statue of her mother Queen BERENIKE, but is to be made of two ears of corn, and the uræus serpent between them, and a papyrus sceptre of their height is behind this uræus serpent, just as the sceptres in the hands of goddesses, and the tail of the uræus serpent be entwined round

And female singers shall chant the praise of this goddess, who are selected for divine service, and wear the crowns of the gods, being their Priestesses. And if an early harvest occurs then shall the Priestesses bring ears of corn in the sanctuaries
- 34 and place them at the divine statue of this goddess, and chant to her divine figure by a chorus of singing men and women, as happens at the feasts and panegyries of the gods, in a hymn which the Sacred Scribes shall have written and given over to the precentor, and the same shall be inscribed in the sacred writings. Also shall be given provisions to the Priests in the temple after they have been installed by
- 35 the King in the temple: henceforward there may be provisions for Priestess's daughters from their birthdays, from the divine supplies for support, accords by the Priests, Counsellors in the temples throughout in proportion of the divine supplies. And the bread shall be given

THE GREAT MENDES STELE.

XXXIInd DYNASTY.

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN VERSION OF

BRUGSCH-BEY.

THE following inscription is upon a tablet at present in the Museum at Boulaq, discovered by Brugsch-Bey in 1871, amidst the ruins of Tmai-el-Amdid. The tablet is rounded above, and has twenty-eight horizontal lines of hieroglyphs, six of which are destroyed and seven are in part wanting. Above is the Hut or winged disk with the following inscription :

“HUT, the great god, Lord of the heaven, the giver of beams, who comes out of the horizon on the side of Upper Egypt, and gives a pure life !”

And on the other side is mentioned instead,

“The coming out of Lower Egypt.”

The snakes are called “Neheb of Eileithyia” and “Uati of Buto.” In the area are represented a ram wearing a disk and horns and covering on a pedestal, and the following inscription :

“The sacred Ram-god, the Great God, the Life of RA, the Generative Ram, the Prince of young women, the beloved of the King’s daughter and King’s sister, and Regent of the land, ARSINOE the ever-living.”

and on the other side,

“The life, the Lord of the land, the Lord of might, MER-AMEN, the Son of RA of his loins who loves him, the Lord of diadems, PTOLEMAIOS the Ever-living,” that is Ptolemy II. Philadelphos. The legend referring to the ram is :

“The King, the RAM, the Life of RA, the RAM, the Life of SHU, the RAM, the Life of SEB, the RAM, the Life of OSIRIS, the RAM of Rams, the Prince of Princes, the heir in the town of Tanen,” or Mendes. Behind the ram is a small figure of Harpocrates seated on a throne, with the following inscription :

“HARPACHRUT, the Great God of Mendes, on his throne in Mendes, to whom the world and all that belongs to it is handed over.”

After him is the god Mendes in his human form wearing the atef crown.

“BA-NEB-TAT the great god the life of RA, the Generative Ram, the Prince of young women, Lord of Heaven, King of the Gods, the Giver of Life for to-day and ever.”

He says :

“I let before thee the kings of all lands bow themselves in respect.”

A goddess wearing on her head the fish standard, emblem of the Mendesian nome, follows Mendes. She is called “HAEMEHETI, the mighty of Mendes, the wife of the god in the temple of the RAM, the Eye of the Sun, the Lady of heaven, the Ruler of all gods.”

She says :

“I give to thee the love in the heart of the god, annihilated is the intention of thy enemies.”

The Queen Arsinoe ends the row of figures, she is called :

“The Daughter, Sister, Great wife of a King, who loves him, the god-like PHILADELPHOS ARSINOE.”

The tablet has been published by Mariette-Bey, Monumens Divers, fo., Paris, 1875, pl. 43, 44, and the whole has been described and translated by Brugsch-

Bey, Die grosse Mendes-Stele aus der Zeit des Zweiten Ptolemaers, in the Zeitschrift für ägyptische Sprache und Alterthumskunde, 1875, S. 33, and foll. This description has been drawn up from Brugsch-Bey's article, and the text of the tablet translated by Mr. Drach from the German translation.

to become Lord and King, the son of a King, born of a Queen, to whom was given the royal dignity over the land, when still in the maternal womb. Before he was born he had already become possessed (of the rule).

4 On the day of his election he became King, resting on the breast of the beauteous and amiable Mistress.¹ His father's manly power, of the holy RAM in the meadows of Mendes, was equal to that of the King. For he is victorious, a master of strength, strong of hand. When he takes his (sword), he combats in the open field, strong amidst the battle fray. With victorious hand he conquers his adversaries. He is of shrewd spirit, of virtuous heart, repelling repulsive things, full of truthfulness, and a friend of legal order. Thoughtful of (bringing back)

5 quietude to Egypt, he protects the holy houses and is an iron protector of her natives. Powerful in virility, universally adored and feared in all lands, (adoration is granted to him) and all men shout at his appearance; he being their (protector) loving (to execute) his (good intents) for their welfare. All sanctuaries are filled with his gifts, and both parts (of the

6 country rejoice in his special kindnesses. This King therefore turned (his cares to)

7 the holy RAM, the Lord of the city of Mendes, since he knew it is this god that is invoked for the kingdom, which is in his hands. On account of his predilection for the royal holy rams, there should be elevated to the throne a (new appearing) live ram, as it occurred from the beginning of his royal accession. The holy animal was to be elevated on his seat and his accession solemnized in the way as for former Kings.

8 Thus began the (festival) of accession. His Majesty occupied the fore part of the Ram-boat of this god, descending the great stream, and upwards on the canal Aken,¹ just as his royal predecessors did, to complete all things customary in the accession, as it is prescribed. On arriving in the city of Mendes and in Anep,² His Majesty ordered him³ to be led forth to his throne chamber. And behold, he was behind this god, thus showing his love to his Lord (Thus did they arrive at) 9 the holy place Ap-Nuterui,⁴ the seat of his enthronement from oldest time. His Majesty visited the edifice of the holy rams, finding the ram-temple still building as His Majesty had ordered. Excluding the foreign workmen His Majesty ordered the edifice, for eternal use, to be completed (speedily). His Majesty (besides) inspected the inmost dwelling chamber of the splendid RAM, which was also to be renewed. And he ordered one (of the superior Officers of his retinue to execute all the work in the best manner)

10 for the Holy RAM in Anep, where he is enthroned on his seat. His Holiness⁵ then went through all the prescribed customs in the temple, desiring to show in every form honour to the holy Rams, corresponding (to the ceremonies as ordered) by the god THOTH. This being finished, His Holiness⁵ went to his residence, and his heart was overjoyed on all that he had done for his father the royal the dignified the living Rams of Anep; may they grant him a long life and a joyous reign. When His Majesty (returned home, he wished

11 to unite) the first of his (consorts) NETEF-ANKH with the goddess BA-ABET. And he gave her the following title of honour "The amiable Princess, the béauteous, loveliest, fairest, the crowned one, who has received the double diadem, whose glory fills the palace, the friend of the holy

- 12 for the Queen's holy consecration and her introduction into) the temple after the divine Lady had received the holy anointing, during an interval of four days, she reappeared as a consecrated soul, and there were rejoicings for her in Anep,¹ when her festival was solemnized, to enliven her holy soul at the place of the living Rams, as was always customary to the Rams of all gods from ancient times unto this day. (Thereupon another ceremony was performed
- 13 in honour of the Queen, in the form granted) to all goddesses, who there received life a second time, scattering the fumes of incense over her and each first day of the ten-day week. His Majesty (further) commanded that her Ram-image should be placed in all temples. This was very pleasing to her Prophets, that she should be found like the deities on account of her benevolent thoughts for all mankind. And (she) was crowned (in the presence of the assembled crowd,
- 14 and rejoicing in her) were the women who were amongst them, and she received the name of "The Beloved of the Holy RAM, Goddess, The Beloved of her royal brother (PHILADELPHUS) ARSINOE." As for His Majesty, he chose out of his suite the fairest youths amongst the children of the Egyptian guards, (but chose) their Captains from the children (of the warrior caste) of the Mendesian nome.
- 15 Further the King showed his favour to the same nome after this manner (as regards namely) the navigation-toll of all Egypt, which they had to pay to the royal house: His Majesty ordered, that no ship-toll should be demand on the vessels of the Mendesian meadow in its entire extent, since they (its dwellers) had spoken before His Majesty, that they had never paid the toll from the times (of the god to the accession

16 of His Majesty. Further) corresponding to what had been done by his father, the Divine King, in former times as regards the apportionment of bread of all the cities to be sent as tribute to the royal house, His Majesty ordered that no bread-tribute should be paid as regards the Ram-temple and its district, nor in its name, just as was done by THOTH (the model) of the Kings. And see, they had spoken (fuller to the King regarding the revenues of 17 the temple of MENDES, serving to pay for) the sacred offerings to extend the district of its sanctuary, and to complete all that was needed for its temple. If there was a deficiency in its products for a long time, sorrow prevailed amongst the people: if there was plenty of provision, joy prevailed amongst them. For the entire wealth of the soil rests on the inundation of the Nile that brings its products (therefore His Majesty ordered, that the inhabitants of the Mendes-

18 ian nome should not pay more than) 70,000 (pieces of money)¹ at the beginning of each year, to be their tax to the royal house for ever afterwards. Such a thing never happened in the time of any of the Kings who lived before him. The whole country rejoiced unto heaven, and burst into hymns of thanks at the royal name of His Majesty. And another proof (of his favourable care for the temple of the Mendesian

19 deity was exhibited by His Majesty in this deed. Namely) in the year 21,² it was announced to His Majesty, "The temple of thy father, of the Holy RAM, of the Lord of Mendes, is completed in all its edifices. It is much fairer, than it ever was before, in compliance with the orders of Thy Majesty. The inscriptions were chiselled in thy name, in the name of thy father and in that of the Divine Lady PHILADELPHOS ARSINOE. (May it please Thy Majesty, to execute the solemnity of consecrating the sanctuary to the god.)"

20 In the year 10¹ of the month 4 of the 10th day occurred the festival in the temple till the 16th day. Then did heaven and earth rejoice. The holy royal RAM was led into his temple, to be enthroned in his place of honour. And all the other (deities) assembled in their chambers in their Ram-shapes, for the whole country had for each town its Ram-deity, and every vale had its ram-headed hawk shape² Thus was the command ordered by His

21 Majesty. And the rest of the festival was solemnized in the presence of the officials) of His Majesty. When the temple was thus most solemnly handed over to its divine possessor, and when they³ had left for the royal residence, to rejoice the heart of His Majesty, and in their suite the Prophets, who carried flowers pleasing to His Majesty, then His Majesty presented to the temple much native gold, wheat, robes (and with all other good things, to dignify the god and his sanctuary.)

22 In year 10 and month 4 it was announced to His Majesty in these words: "Please to let the Living Holy RAM be brought from the field in the West of the city of Mendes. The place where it was found, is in the neighbourhood of the pylons, lying near the place . . .⁴ that Thy Majesty may place it on its throne. Let the sacred scribes of the temple approach (from certain places of the country that they

After the sacred scribes of the temple had inspected the animal, they acknowledged its symbolical meaning, after the rules of the divine prescriptions, and it received the following title : "The RAM, the Life of RA, the RAM, the Life of SHU, the RAM, the Life of SET, (the RAM, the Life of
- 24 OSIRIS." After this was done, His Majesty's officials came, to tell him that) "Given to him are his holy titles by Thy Majesty's scribes of the temple, his dwelling is entirely completed according to Thy Majesty's orders. May Thy Majesty order the Holy RAM to be placed on its throne." Then did His Majesty think like the god THOTH. He thought over by himself of a plan regarding the King of royal animals (and came to this decision. There should be placed next to the divine Ram-images a portrait of the
- 25 Queen) ARSINOE, holding in her hand an ear of corn, and the holy animals should be known thereby, by the symbol of life on their necks for the Lords of the country. And His Majesty commanded, that these deities should be led in procession to the city of Mendes by the hand of the Prophets who had devoted themselves to them. And the Captains of the warriors Nefami² of His Majesty were to be in their suit (and complete all prescribed customs)
- 26 just as His Majesty would do from the moment, when he would embrace the animal, as soon as it had taken its place on its father's throne. It was on the 16th of the month Mechir, when these deities entered the city Mendes : the consecrated Prophets, His Majesty's grandees, and the Captains of the Nefami² warriors were in their suite, and they fulfilled all the customs (prescribed in the sanctuary of
- 27 the Holy RAM. After this occurrence) happened on the 18th of the month Mechir, the fête of the transference

Its inhabitants were jubilant, and all hearts were overflowing with song, the Mendes-mead was full of ecstasy, and jubilant were (all its inhabitants, they 28 crying out :) "The city Mendes is born again, may the Holy RAM of all Gods recompence what His Majesty has done, by prolonging his years as King for a long period. May the Divine HORUS improve alway the kingdom which is placed under his name, may his son take the throne to all eternity, may destruction never find an entrance thither, since (the King has on the God) believed."

THE LITANY OF RA.

 TRANSLATED BY

 EDOUARD NAVILLE.

THE following Litany of Ra is the translation of a long text which is to be found at the entrance of several of the largest tombs of the kings, in the valley called Biban el Moluk at Thebes. It is a kind of introduction to the long pictures which adorn the walls of the royal sepulchres, and which generally represent the course of the sun at the different hours of night.

Although very nearly connected with the Book of the Dead, this text has not yet been found complete in any funereal papyrus; the second section of the fourth chapter only, is contained in a papyrus of the British Museum.

The importance of this text consists in this, that it gives us an idea of the esoteric doctrine of the Egyptian priests, which was clearly pantheistic, and which certainly differed from the polytheistic worship of the common people.

The present translation has been made from my book La Litanie du Soleil (Leipzig, 1875, avec un vol. de XLIX planches), where this text has been first translated in French, with a commentary. Among the different tombs where this inscription was collected, that of Seti I, commonly called Belzoni's tomb, has been chosen as the standard text.

The royal OSIRIS knows them by their names, he knows what is in their bodies, all their hidden essences. The royal OSIRIS speaks to them in their forms, they open to the royal OSIRIS, they display the hidden doors to his spirit which is like thy spirit, thou createst them, thou createst the royal OSIRIS ; the development of his body is like thine because the royal OSIRIS is one of thy companions, who are in their spheres, and who speak in their caverns, those who are blessed through thy creation and who transform themselves when thou commandest it. The royal OSIRIS is like one of those who speak in their hidden spheres. Ha ! he has arrived, he advances in the train of the spirit of RA. - 1 Worship of the Spheric Gods, when RA sets in life. Hail, gods of the spheres, gods who are in the Ament, perfect gods¹ the enemies of RA, you make the universal covering² grow¹ you worship the god who is in his disk¹ thou commandest thy enemies, great god who art upon the horizon ; four times. Thou commandest thy enemies, OSIRIS TEMT ; four times.

- 4 The royal OSIRIS receives dominion over his enemies from the great powers of the mysterious avenger, he who reveals the mysterious empyrean, who dissipates the darkness, who chases away the rain, he who hurries, and who makes the blessed servants of RA come forth. He¹ sees the body of the god when he assumes forms with a mysterious name, when he sheds his rays in obscurity, and when he hides the uncovered bodies ; when he traverses the mysterious spheres and when he gives eyes to their gods ; they themselves see him, and their spirits are blessed.
- 5 Hail, RA ! give eyes to the royal OSIRIS, give him divine eyeballs, and may they guide the royal OSIRIS. Hail, RA ! give a heart to the royal OSIRIS ; he traverses the earth, he traverses the world like RA.

- 10 Thou commandest OSIRIS to be like the destructive spirit which comes forth from the place of destruction.
- 11 Thou commandest OSIRIS to be like the revealing spirit which comes forth from the opening.
- 12 Thou commandest OSIRIS to be like the elevated spirit which comes forth from the high place.

² The god of the two horizons.

- 13 Thou commandest OSIRIS to be like the hidden spirit which comes forth from the Ament.
- 14 Deliver him from the crocodiles which frighten the spirits, like geese; let them not do their work upon the royal OSIRIS, in the presence of the gods armed with swords; may OSIRIS never fall into their furnaces, may their nets never entangle him; his spirit flies away and soars into the heavens, his spirit returns and enters into the empyrean, because the royal OSIRIS knows the mysteries which are in the empyrean, the secret forms of OSIRIS, that none of his servants know, in the secret of his hidden dwelling. Hail! the royal OSIRIS knows thy form, great and mysterious god.
- 15 Deliver the royal OSIRIS from the agile demons furnished with legs, from the cruel gods who pluck out hearts and who throw them into their furnaces. May they never do their work upon the royal OSIRIS, may they never put him in their furnaces, because OSIRIS is RA; and reciprocally. His soul is that which is in the disk. His body is in the middle of the hidden gods; they make OSIRIS rule, OSIRIS makes them rule; he commands, and he rests as you rest in the Ament.
- 16 The soul of RA shines in his shape, his body rests amid the invocations which are addressed to him; he enters into the interior of his white disk, he lights the empyrean with his rays, he creates it, he makes the souls remain in their bodies, they praise him from the height of their pedestal. He receives the acclamations of all the gods who open the doors, the hidden essences who prepare the way for RA's soul, and who allow the King of souls access to the fields. He traverses his disk himself; he calls (to life) the body of KAT;¹ he places the gods of the stars upon their legs; these latter make the god AN² come at their hours ; the two sisters join themselves to him, they decorate his head, as a spirit worthy of adornment.

- 17 Oh, RA, place the royal OSIRIS in thy train ; he is the divine key which opens his haunts, he knows admirable means of obtaining the great victory over his enemies ; OSIRIS is powerful through thy two eyes ; walking god, the course of OSIRIS is thy course. RA, the journeys of OSIRIS are thy journeys, OSIRIS makes thee rule over thy enemies, thou makest OSIRIS rule over his enemies, by means of the great splendour which is the splendour of RA in the empyrean, they cry to him : Bull of the country of the dead, thou art RA, thy body rests in peace, thou art blessed in thy mysteries.

CHAPTER IV.

SECTION I.

- 1 Thou art what he is, RA, thou givest birth to the royal OSIRIS, thou makest him exist like thyself, god of the two horizons ; the birth of OSIRIS is the birth of RA in the Ament, and reciprocally ; the birth of OSIRIS in the heavens is the birth of the soul of RA in the heavens, and reciprocally ; the life of OSIRIS is the life of RA, and reciprocally ; the development of his body is the development of RA's body. RA conceived, TUM gave birth to OSIRIS ; it is the young CHEPRA ; NUT brings OSIRIS into the world, she nourishes OSIRIS like RA's soul which issued from her.
- 2 Oh, RA who art in the Ament ' who art in the empyrean, deliver OSIRIS from thy conductors who separate souls from their bodies, the agile beings who move quickly in thy places of torment. May they never seize OSIRIS, may they never take him, may they never quicken their steps towards him, may they never put him in their places of torture, may they never cast their toils round him, may they never place him upon their altars, may he never tremble in the land of the condemned, may he never be lost in the Ament. He walks as the god of the horizon walks, he takes RA's steps, he worships the god who is on the earth, he honours the mysterious bodies ' they say to OSIRIS : HU and SA ; they call him this, because he is like the spirit of HU and SA¹ in his creations ; he makes the sacred tree grow he is not ignorant of it. There are cries of joy in the mysterious region, for RA sets under the form of OSIRIS, and re-ciprocally. Rejoice, you the dead, render praises to RA, and RA renders praises to you. RA comes forth from the cow MEHUR,¹ he sets in NETUR ;² OSIRIS comes forth from MEHUR like the sun, he sets in NETUR like TEMT. The name of the King is the name of RA, AMMEHUR,³ the setting of OSIRIS, it is his setting, AMNETUR.⁴

3 The gods of the empyrean bless him, the hidden gods rejoice over him ; they say to him : thy person is the god of the country of the dead, thy form is TEB TEMT. The hidden gods speak to the royal OSIRIS, they rejoice on seeing him ; (they say to him :) Hail, blessed and perfect one, who comest forth from TONEN, the god who destroys the forms ; it is great, thy essence, spirit, shadow that no one destroys, that lives where you live. He knows the essences of the primitive beings, he knows the mysterious flames of the empyrean, for he attains to holy and mysterious things.

4 The two gods speak to the royal OSIRIS, they rejoice on seeing him, this blessed, perfect spirit ; (they say to him :) This is one of us. The gods speak to the royal OSIRIS, they rejoice when they see him, him, the splendour of RA, the splendour of the two goddesses that appears in HESER,⁵ the supplicant HESER addresses the guardians who watch over the doors, who devour souls and who swallow the shades of the dead ; when they approach them, they are led by them to the place of destruction : Oh, guardians who watch over your doors, who swallow souls and devour the shades of the dead ; when they approach you, you lead them to the place of destruction ; Oh ! allow this blessed this most holy spirit, to be in the dwelling of the Akher;¹ it is a spirit like RA glorious like OSIRIS. This is what HESET the suppliant says before the royal OSIRIS.

5 Oh, HESET, make him come, oh HESET, guide the royal OSIRIS, oh HESET open to him the empyrean, give him the lot of the god of the empyrean; he puts the veil *nems*² upon his head at the bottom of the dwelling of the Ament. Hail to thee, he has reached thee; HESET, guide him on the good way, he speaks to thee, he glorifies thee by his invocations, and thou rejoicest on seeing his spirit; HESET, the suppliant, open the doors which are in the empyrean, open his spheres to him, for the club is in the hand of OSIRIS, and he grasps his lance; his club strikes the enemies, and his lance destroys the rebels; his dwelling is that of the god of the two horizons; his throne is RA's throne; for he is the HORUS of the two horizons.³ He is beautiful, this spirit, he is perfect, he is powerful in both his hands.

6 The two great gods speak to the royal OSIRIS; they rejoice on his account; they celebrate his victorious strength, they give him their protection, they send him their spirit of life; (they say to him :) He is brilliant like the spirit of the horizon that is the dwelling of RA in the heavens;⁴ they communicate their words to him, they give him the power by their authority. He opens the door of heaven and earth like his father RA; a spirit shining in the place where they burn the offerings, in the arms of OSIRIS. The royal OSIRIS rests in the mysterious dwelling, he shines like the god of the luminary, the dwelling of RA of the horizon.⁴ The royal OSIRIS is RA; and reciprocally; he is the spirit of OSIRIS; he rests (in him).

- 7 He reaches the gods of the pyramid ; these latter praise him on seeing the happy arrival of OSIRIS ; they address him as RA of the horizon ; praise be to RA ! cheers for the spirit of the horizon, praises to the spirit of RA ! Praise his spirit that inhabits the empyrean, invoke him who is in his disk, bear him to him who created you, carry him unto the pyramid, since you are the gods who accompany RA OSIRIS. Here is OSIRIS, carry him into the hidden sanctuary of OSIRIS, the lord of years¹ who is under the care of the two Rehti. Carry him into the hidden dwelling where OSIRIS resides, carry him into the funeral monument which is in the Ament, the mysterious sanctuary of the god who is at rest ; bear him, open your arms to him, stretch out your hands to him, take off your veils before him, for he is the great essence whom the dead spirits do not know ; it is RA, the god of the two horizons, and OSIRIS, the King of the Ament, who send him.
- 8 The royal OSIRIS is one of you, for his diadem is a vulture ; his face is a sparrow-hawk, his head is RA ; his eyes are the REHTI, the two sisters ; his nose is HORUS of the empyrean ; his mouth is the King of the Ament ; his lungs are NUN ; his two hands are the god SECHENI ;² his fingers are the gods who seize him ; his body is CHEPRA ; his heart is HORUS, the creator ; his chest is the goddess of life ; his spleen is the god FENTI ;³ his lungs are the goddess HETI ; his stomach is ÄPU ; his intestines, the god with the mysterious names ;⁴ his back is the corpse-god ; his elbows are MAKATI ; the nape of his neck, HORUS THOTH ; his lips MEHUR ; his phallus is TONEN ;⁵ . . . ⁶ the goddess of Cher ; . . . ⁶ the two hidden gods ; his sitting posture the two goddesses ; his legs, he who traverses the hidden places ; his shin-bones are uræus. His members are gods, he is throughout a god, no one of his members is without a god, the gods are of his substance. The royal OSIRIS is an intelligent essence, his members guide him, his flesh opens the way to him, those who are born of him create him, they rest when they have given birth to him. The royal OSIRIS is he who gives them birth, it is he who begets them, it is he who makes them exist ; his birth is that of RA in the Ament, RA gives birth to the royal OSIRIS, he causes his own birth.

SECTION II.

- 1 Oh, RA, open to his spirit, for the royal OSIRIS knows what there is in the empyrean, he is the great mummy, OSIRIS, the King of the Ament ; he is OSIRIS, he is perfect like OSIRIS, he is blessed like OSIRIS, his club is that of OSIRIS, his sword is that of CHENTAMENT, his sceptre is that of SAHOU, he is the great one, the King of the blessed, for he is the original one, he who knows the mysteries, the greatest of the holy ones in the empyrean. He is happy, the spirit KESCHI who makes his own law in the Ament, he speaks to what is born of him,¹ OSIRIS CHENTAMENT.
- 2 Hail to thee, inhabitant of the empyrean, praised be what is in thee ; hail to thee, inhabitant of the empyrean, the weeping gods cut their hair in honour of thee, they clap their hands, they revere thee, they weep before thee, thy spirit rejoices in their fear, thy body is blessed.

4 Hail to the inhabitant of the empyrean, thy son HORUS rests in thee, thou communicatest thy orders to him, thou permittest him to shine like AN of the empyrean, the great star who creates his names,² who knows the empyrean and who traverses the interior of it, he, the son of RA, proceeding from TUM. The royal OSIRIS is thy son, thou communicatest thy orders to him, thou permittest him to shine like AN of the heavens, the great star who creates his names,² who knows the empyrean and who traverses the interior of it, he the son of RA, proceeding from TUM. He rests in the empyrean, he rejoices in the dusk, he enters in there and comes forth, the arms of TONEN receive him, the blessed lift him, they stretch out their hands towards him, the . . .³ guide him. Praise him ye blessed, exalt the royal OSIRIS, ye blessed ! Rejoice over him, as over RA, extol him like OSIRIS, he has placed your offerings before you, he accords you the favour of receiving your portion as his father RA commanded. He is his darling, he is his descendant upon the earth, and the blessed show him the way. Let him arrive in the empyrean, and let him penetrate into the good Ament. The royal OSIRIS fixes the crown upon the head of OSIRIS, he offers his casket to SEB, he presents SAH with the sceptre, he gives the royal diadem to him whose name is AMMON.

5 Look at him, ye blessed, let him receive a perfect intelligence, let him shine like the god of mysteries, deliver him from the gods of the pillory who fasten to

- 6 He is sublime, the spirit of RA in the Ament, his body is blessed there, the spirits rejoice when they develop their forms in the zones of the empyrean, before the soul of RA, the inhabitant of the empyrean, and TEB TEMT who rests in his covering. Hail, yes, hail ! Hail spirit of RA, hail, spirit of the royal OSIRIS like TEMT ! Hail, royal OSIRIS who art RA, and reciprocally ! Oh TEMT who art RA, and reciprocally, hail !
- 7 The royal OSIRIS is one of you. He gives birth to you, he gives you your names, he makes you perfect ; ha ! he sends his body into you ; ha ! he is your creator. Look at him, he shines like him who proceeds from you ; he honours his father, perfect, blessed, blessing his mother ; look at him, make his essence sublime and make him like him who destroys his forms ;¹ show the way to his spirit, set him upon your pedestals, make him rest in his members, show him his dwelling in the midst of the earth, open your doors to him, unfasten the bolt.
- 8 Oh RA, oh TEB-TEMT, guide the royal OSIRIS following the direction of the spirits, following the course of the gods. The royal OSIRIS is in his gateway (in presence of the) navigating gods ; the royal OSIRIS is the only one, the guardian of his doors, he who puts the gods in their place. He is upon his pedestal in the empyrean, he is the possessor in the midst of the possessors, he is at the extremities of the empyrean, he is blessed in the infernal regions. He rests in the Ament amongst the spirits who are in the members of the Ament. The royal OSIRIS is RA's darling, he is the mysterious phoenix, he enters in peace into the empyrean, he leaves NUT in peace ; the royal OSIRIS has his throne in heaven, he traverses the horizons in RA's train, he is at peace in the heavens, in RA's fields, his share is upon the horizon in the fields of AALU ; he traverses the earth like RA, he is wise like THOTH, he walks at will, he hastens in his course, like SAHU with the mysterious names, who becomes two divinities. The royal OSIRIS becomes two divinities. What RA produces, the royal OSIRIS produces ; he gives a spiritual existence to what he loves ; he does not give it to what he hates. The royal OSIRIS is the Chief of the gods who make offerings to the spirits, he is powerful in his course, he is the courageous being who strikes his enemies.

9 Oh ye gods, oh ye blessed who precede RA and who escort his spirit, do to the royal OSIRIS as to RA, tow him with you in the same way that you conduct RA and the two navigating gods in the heavens ; the royal OSIRIS is RA himself, and reciprocally ; he is the Chief of his worshippers who gives life to the forms.

SECTION III.

1 Oh, Ament, oh Ament, oh good, oh good, oh strong, oh strong, oh powerful, oh powerful, oh protecting, oh protecting, oh mysterious, oh mysterious (Ament), the royal OSIRIS knows thee, he knows thy form, he knows the name of thy companions. Ament, hide my corpse, good Ament, hide my body. Oh resting place, let me rest in thee ; oh strong one, may the royal OSIRIS be strong with thy strength, oh powerful one, may he be powerful with thy power ! Oh Ament, open thy arms to him ; oh protectress, cover his body ; oh mysterious being, stretch out thy hand to him. Hail, holy Ament of OSIRIS with the mysterious names, the most holy of the gods, thou who art the most hidden of all mysteries. Hail ! the royal OSIRIS worships thee ; he addresses the great god who is within thee. Hail ! he worships thee ; open thy mysterious doors to him. Hail ! he worships thee ; (open to him) thy hidden spheres, for he has his dwelling in the heavens like RA, and his throne is upon the earth like SEB ; he is seated upon the throne of SEB, upon the seats of HORCHUTI ; his spirit soars into the heavens, it rests there ; his body descends to the earth in the midst of the gods. He walks with RA, he follows TUM, he is like CHEPRA, he lives as thou livest in truth.

HYMN TO RA-HARMACHIS.

E. L. LUSHINGTON, LL.D., D.C.L.

THE Hymn to Amen - Ra - Harmachis (the Sun identified with the Supreme Deity), of which a translation is here attempted, is found, with other compositions of a similar nature, among the Berlin papyri. (No. 5, published in Lepsius, Denkmäler, Abth. VI., Bd. 12, p. 115-117.)

It probably belongs to the Ramesside period ; the writing is careful and for the most part very distinct ; some lacunæ are met with towards the end, and in a few passages the characters baffle the present translator's skill in decyphering.

Citations from this hymn occur not unfrequently in the writings of eminent Egyptian scholars, as Brugsch, Devéria, and others ; compare especially Chabas, Le Nom de Thèbes, p. 16, where the long antithesis of epithets bestowed on Ra and his adversaries is described as "furnishing a page of the Egyptian dictionary."

As far as I am aware, no complete translation of it was published till the appearance of Professor Maspero's Histoire Ancienne, Paris, 1875 ; where the whole is rendered into French, p. 32-35. My own translation was made before I had the opportunity of seeing this work; since consulting it I have modified my version of one or two passages in accordance with M. Maspero's views.

HYMN TO RA-HARMACHIS.

Say: 'Thou wakest beauteous AMEN-RA-HARMACHIS, thou watchest in triumph, AMEN-RA, Lord of the horizon. O blessed one beaming in splendour, towed by thy mariners who are of the unresting gods, sped by thy mariners of the unmoving gods. 'Thou comest forth thou ascendest, thou towerest in beauty, thy barge divine careers wherein thou speedest, blest by thy mother NUT each day, heaven embraces thee, thy foes fall as thou turnest thy face to the West of heaven. Counted are thy bones, collected thy limbs, living thy flesh, thy members blossom, thy soul blossoms, glorified is thy august form, advanced thy state on the road of darkness. Thou listenest to the call of thy attendant gods behind thy 10 chamber; in gladness are the mariners of thy bark, their heart delighted, Lord of heaven who hast brought joys to the divine Chiefs, the lower sky rejoices, gods and men exult applauding RA on his standard, blest by his mother NUT; their heart is glad. RA hath quelled his impious foes, heaven rejoices, earth is in delight, gods and goddesses are in festival to make adoration to RA-HOR, as they see him rise in his bark. He fells the wicked in his season, the abode is inviolate, the diadem mehen in its place, the uræus hath smitten the wicked.

O let thy mother NUT embrace thee,¹ Lord RA, those who are with her tell thy glories. OSIRIS and NEPHTHYS have uplifted thee at thy coming forth from the womb of 20 thy mother NUT. O shine RA-HARMACHIS, shine in thy morning as thy noonday brightness, thy cause upheld over thy enemies, thou makest thy cabin speed onward, thou repellst the false one in the moment of his annihilation: he has no rest² in the moment when thou breakest the strength of the wicked enemies of RA, to cast him into the fire of Nehaher,³ encircling in its hour the children of the profane. No strength have they, RA prevails over his insensate foes, yea, putting them to the sword thou makest the false one cast up what he devoured.

Arise O RA from within thy chamber, strong is RA, weak the foes: lofty is RA, down-stricken the foes: RA living, his foes dead: RA full of meat and drink, his foes a-hungered and athirst: RA bright, his foes engulfed: RA good, his foes evil: RA mighty, his foes puny: RA hath despoiled APAP.

30 O RA thou givest all life⁴ to the King, thou givest food for his mouth, drink for his throat, sweet oil for his hair. O blessed RA-HARMACHIS thou careerest by him in triumph, those in thy bark exult to quell and overthrow the wicked. Cries of joy in the great seat, the divine

¹ Perhaps "Approach thou thy mother Nut." Neb Ra, "Lord Ra," seems clearly the reading of the text given in Lepsius, unless the scribe has twice put the hieratic character for nuter instead of the usual form of h; neb heh, "lord of eternity," as Maspero renders it, is what might rather have been expected. In the following "Isis and Nephthys" is the version of M. Maspero; the text appears to me to give Osiris.

² Perhaps "he cannot advance."

⁴ "Thou givest life," this may be understood also as imperative, "give life."

cabin is in gladness, acclamation in the bark of millions of years. RA's sailors are charmed at heart to see RA hailed as supreme of the order of great gods, they gain delight in doing adoration to the great bark, homage in the mysterious chamber. O shine AMEN-RA-HARMACHIS self-sprung, thy sister goddesses stand in Bech,¹ they 40 receive thee, they uplift thee into thy bark, which is perfect in delights before Lord RA, thou begettest blessings. Come RA, self-sprung, thou lettest PHARAOH receive plenty in his battlemented house, on the altar of the god whose name is hidden.

Glory to thee, Prince coming forth in thy season, Lord of many faces, diadem producing rays, scattering darkness, all roads are filled with thy splendours, apes make to thee salutations with their arms, they praise thee, they cry aloud to thee, they tell thy glories, their lips exalt thee in heaven, in earth ; they conduct thee at thy splendid arising, they open or drive back the gate of the Western horizon of heaven, they let RA be embraced in peace and joy by his mother NUT ; thy soul is approved by the tenants of the lower heaven, the divine spirits rejoice at 50 the twofold season of brightness : thou turnest gloom into repose,² thou sweetenest pain of OSIRIS, thou givest breezes in the valley, illuminest earth in darkness, sweetenest pain of OSIRIS. All beings taste the breath, they make to thee acclamations in thy changes, thou who art Lord of changes, they give adoration to thy might in thy forms of beauty in the morn. Gods hold their arms to thee, those whom thy mother NUT bore.

¹ Bech, the Eastern hill of sunrise. See Brugsch, Z.A. 1864, p. 73, etc. Its opposite height was called Manu.

² "Thou turnest gloom into repose." I am not confident that the meaning of the original ta-k neshen enti ster is correctly given in these words; perhaps "thou makest the adversary prostrate" may more truly convey the sense.

Come to the King O RA, stablsh his glories in heaven his might on earth.

O RA heaven rejoices to thee, O RA earth trembles at thee, O blessed RA-HARMACHIS thou hast raised heaven to elevate thy soul, the lower sky has hidden thee in thy mystic forms. Thou hast uplifted heaven to the expanse of thy outstretched arms, thou hast spread out earth to the width of thy stride. Heaven rejoices to thee at thy 60 greatness of soul, thy terror fills earth at thy figure, princely hawk of glittering plume, many coloured frame, mighty sailor god, self-existing, traversing paths in the divine vessel, thou roarest in smiting thy foes, making thy great bark sweep on, men hail thee, gods fear thee, thou hast felled thy foes before it. Courier of heaven outstript by none, to illumine earth for his children, uplifted above gods and men, shining upon us; we know not thy form when thou lookest on our faces, thy bulk passes our knowledge.

O blessed RA-HARMACHIS thou penetratest
Bull at night, Chieftain by day, beauteous orb of mafek, King of heaven, Sovran of earth, great image in the 70 horizon of heaven. RA who hast made beings, TATANEN giving life to mankind, PHARAOH son of RA has adored thee in thy glories, he has worshipped at thy gracious rising brightness on the Eastern horizon, he makes tranquil thy path, he beats down thy foes before thee in his turning back all thy adversaries, he assigned to thee the Uta on her seat, he makes them he assigned to thee honours he cleared the way for thee, he established thy rites in Abydos; he opens to thee roads in Rusta, 76 he beats down evil.

THE INSCRIPTION OF DARIUS
AT THE TEMPLE OF EL-KHARGEH.

TRANSLATED BY
S. BIRCH, LL.D.

THE inscription, which is inedited, was copied by Mr. Robert Hay from the south-western wall of the second chamber of the temple of Amen at El-Khargeh.¹ The representations which occur after the first line of the original are those of the four elements divided into the male and female principle, and described by M. Lepsius in a paper written by him for the Berlin Academy.² They are represented snake-headed and frog-headed, holding their hands up in adoration. They are as follows :—

Lines 2—4

Nu (Han) . . . water, male.

Nut (Han.t.) . . . water, female.

Hehu . . . fire, male.

Hehu t . . . fire, female.

¹ The copy is at present in the British Museum, Add. Manuscript, No. 29,847, fol. 89.

² Unter die Götter d. vier Elementen, in the Abhandl. ungen. d. K. Akad. d. Wissensch. 4to., 1856.

Kakiu	. . . earth, male .
Kakiu t	. . . earth, female .
Karh	. . . air, male .
Karh t	. . . air, female .

In this series they follow the ordinary order, and have their usual names, the only exception being that of instead of the word Nau, for "air," the inscription of El-Khargeh gives Karh. This word has no philological analogy with any of the Egyptian expressive of air. It has been supposed to mean "care;"¹ the word nearest to it in sound is karh, "the night." The inscription which is really a highly pantheistic hymn consists of forty-six lines, and contains the address of the Elements to the god Amen Ra. It has been numbered in the copy inversely, the 46th being the first list. It is of the nature of some of the hymns already published and relating to that god, and may be compared with the Litany of the Sun already contained in this volume. This translation, together with the original text has been published by myself in the Transactions of the Society of Biblical Archæology, Vol. V., p. 293, foll.

THE PRAISE OF LEARNING.

TRANSLATED BY

S. BIRCH, LL.D.

THIS composition is found on two papyri in the British Museum, Sallier II., pl. iii., l. 9-pl. xi., l. 4, and Anástasi VII., pl. i. l. 1-pl. vii. l. 4, Select Papyri, pl. xv.-xx., cxxviii.-cxxxiv., and also on a slice of calcarcous stone in the same institution, published in Inscriptions in the Hieratic and Demotic Characters published by the British Museum, pl. xi. It has long attracted the attention of students; a precis of the contents and translation of a small portion having been given by Mr. Goodwin in the Cambridge Essays, 1858, p. 272-275; but the first critical translation of the whole has been given by M. Maspero, Le Genre Epistolaire chez les Anciens Egyptiens, 1872, p. 48. The present translation is made after that of M. Maspero, and follows it in nearly all the passages; but the difficult and obscure nature of many sentences is such that they can hardly be interpreted, except conjecturally, owing principally to two reasons, viz., the extreme conciseness of the language in which it is written, accompanied by the use of colloquial phrases, and the abnormal employment of determinative Hieroglyphs in Hieratic compositions. This long text appears to be a poetical one, and the lines of poetry are indicated by red spots. That these do not mark off sentences is evident from the spots occasionally being placed in the middle of a sentence, the end of which passes into the following line. The composition is attributed to the period of the XIIth Dynasty ; but the name of Pepi, the same as that of a monarch of the VIth Dynasty, may indicate that it is of the earlier period. The manuscripts in which it is found are not older than the age of Rameses II. of the XIXth Dynasty. Two dedications are found on the papyri ; that of the Sallier Papyrus is, "To the perfect bard, the very wonderful, the scribe of the treasury, Qakabu, of the treasury of the Pharaoh," while Anastasi VII. has "To the scribe of the treasury, Qakabu, the scribe Paharpet, the scribe Autha, the scribe Rameriu, made by the scribe Anna, (or Ann-ann) the master of instructions, in the 6th year the 25th of the month Payni when one was in the house of Rameses (II.). Loving Amen, the Living, the great portrait of Ra-Harmachis," by which last expression is meant the king Rameses II. It should be observed that these dedications are also marked with red spots, but they were also drawn up in poetical form, so as to make the entire composition uniform.

XXXIInd DYNASTY.

TRANSLATED BY
M. THEOD. DEVERIA.

THESE moral precepts are written in the demotic script on a palimpsest papyrus in the collection of the Musée du Louvre, X. 9, No. 2114. The other side of the papyrus has a Greek inscription contained in three columns, which has been published by MM. Egger et Brunet de Prèsle in Papyrus grecs du Musée du Louvre et de la Bibliothèque, No. 56, and the Egyptian text has been published and annotated by M. Pierret in the Recueil Egyptologique, 1re Livraison, and also again by M. Theod. Deveria in Catalogue des Manuscrits Egyptiens au Musée du Louvre, 8vo., Paris, 1875, p. 139, and from that latter source the following translation is taken. These wise admonitions which are almost the latest that occur in Egyptian literature should be compared with those of the scribe Pthah-hept which were written in the time of the VIth Dynasty, and which have been translated both by M. Chabas in Le plus Ancien livre du Monde, 1857, and by the Rev. Dunbar Heath, under the title of The Proverbs of Aphobis.¹

¹ A translation of these ancient proverbs will shortly appear in the Records of the Past.

Pro. iv. 14 and xxviii. 7.³ Lacunæ.⁴ Cf. the fine old Sanskrit Proverb, "Strike not a wife even with a flower."⁵ This admonition sounds almost Budhistic in its tendency. If the view could be safely entertained that the doctrine of Sakyamunya had reached Greece, then an Egyptian priest educated in the Greco-Egyptian School of Alexandria might have heard of such a precept.

² Cf. Eccles. ix. 9 and Prov. vi. 29.

³ That such a caution should have become necessary demonstrates plainly how much in the Ptolemaic period the Egyptians had declined from the love of their old faith, since a tomb in the consecrated mountains of the West was at one time the last and highest comfort that religion could bestow.

SOCIETY OF BIBLICAL ARCHÆOLOGY.

9, CONDUIT STREET, W.,

6th May, 1873.

SIR,

I beg to inform you that it is intended shortly to publish a Series of TRANSLATIONS OF ALL THE IMPORTANT ASSYRIAN AND EGYPTIAN TEXTS, which exist in the various collections of England and the Continent, and thus place before the English Student the remains of undoubtedly THE OLDEST AND MOST AUTHENTIC LITERATURE IN THE WORLD, the foundation of all History, Archæology, and Biblical exposition, the contemporaneous records of the nations and writers of the Bible. Nearly all the principal Translators have offered their services for this purpose, and while each Author will be alone responsible for his portion of the work, the general arrangement of the materials will rest with the President of this Society. The selection of the records will not be confined to those bearing directly on the text of the Bible, but embrace the entire range of Egyptian and Assyrian history and literature. Each translation will quote the authorities upon which it is based, or the monument from which it is taken, and all other notes will be as few and brief as possible, to avoid controversy and expense.

The volumes will be issued by Messrs. Bagster and Sons, at a price to bring them within the reach of all who are interested in such subjects.

I shall be happy to answer any communication addressed to me upon this subject, and trust that you will promote the best interests of Biblical Archæology, by circulating this notice among your friends.

I remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

W. R. COOPER.
